

“Inclusive education seeks to address the learning needs of all children, with a specific focus on those who are vulnerable to marginalisation and exclusion. The goal is to promote opportunities for all children to participate and be treated equally.” —Andie Fong Toy

Programme Summary

Date & Strategic Theme	Morning Session	Afternoon Session
THURSDAY 5th February 2026 Inclusion	Matt Bromley Engaging all pupils in education	Finola Wilson Pedagogy for disadvantaged pupils
FRIDAY 6th FEBRUARY 2026 Inclusion &amp; strategic leadership	Nicola S Morgan Positive Behaviour Management	Workshop carousel See suggested format below

Matt Bromley is CEO of BEE and Chair of the Building Equity in Education Campaign. He is an education journalist, author, and advisor with 25 years' experience in teaching and leadership including as a secondary school headteacher and academy principal, further education college vice principal, and multi-academy trust director.

Matt is a public speaker, trainer, initial teacher training lecturer, and school improvement advisor. He remains a practising teacher, currently working in secondary, FE and HE settings.

Matt writes for various education magazines including SecEd and Headteacher Update, and he is a columnist on The Yorkshire Post. He is the author of numerous best-selling books on education and he co-hosts an award-winning podcast.

Nicola S Morgan is an multi award-winning TEDx and keynote speaker, international education consultant, author and teacher with over twenty-eight years' experience working in a variety of education settings. During this time, she has developed a reputation for successfully managing the most challenging behaviour as well as motivating and inspiring staff to help implement long term and lasting change.

Having failed hard and then successfully completed the English Channel swim solo she prides herself on specialising in two key areas, Resilience and Behaviour. A Certified NLP Master Practitioner, IVET Foundation Affiliate and Resilient Leaders Elements and International Values-Based Education Consultant, Nicola has worked with thousands of professionals across education reconnect with what they do best lead with clarity, courage and calm.

Finola Wilson has worked extensively with Welsh Schools in championing the needs of disadvantaged learners. She is Director of IMPACT School Improvement Wales and recently lobbied the Welsh Government around their educational approaches for hard-to-reach learners.

Fin is an author of successful educational books and she was very well received at our Autumn Conference in looking at disadvantaged gaps. The session she will lead for us this time will have a focus on teaching pedagogy for vulnerable learners.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON: Strategic thinking for Leaders – WORKSHOPS.

In response to delegate feedback to have more time networking and liaising with fellow leaders, we are proposing a series of workshops for leaders to choose where small group discussions will take place on themes which impact on us all. These work shops will run from 1.45 – 2.30pm & 2.45 – 3.30pm.

The workshop themes include:

Ofsted experiences – learning from school(s) who have been inspected under the new framework since 1st January 2026.

Sustainability planning and Climate Change Action Plans – accessing resources and plans to help you move this theme forward in your school.

Financial Literacy – what could/should this look like going forward within the new curriculum.